Dear Parents/Carers, In last week's newsletter we were welcoming back our Isles of Scilly campers; today we hand back our very excited and very tired Year 2 campers. They have had a fabulous 2 days full of fun so my huge thanks go to Mr Anjari for organising this great opportunity. Also to Mrs Moyle, Mrs Sampson, Mrs Carroll, Miss Puxley and Miss Bidgood who helped Mr Anjari with the overnight stay and to Mrs George and Miss Potts who helped out with the daytime activities too. I have never heard such an excited bunch of children!

This weekend is the Constantine Garden Society annual show. All classes have exhibits so please go along and support. On Saturday evening I am indebted to Mrs Micklem and Miss Balkwill who are accompanying members of the choir, ukulele clubs, samba club and Cober singers for the Saturday night 'Brass on Grass' concert. The concert starts at 7pm so do go along and listen if you can.

Next week also promises to be very busy with the Y6 Leavers' Barbeque on Monday and then their Leavers' Show in the Tolmen on Wednesday and Thursday. Everyone has been foot-tapping for weeks to the songs from Grease so it should be a fun and memorable show with pre-show hotdogs and candy floss to get everyone in the American mood! Audience Grease-themed or Hawaiian costumes are encouraged. The Hawaiian bit will make sense on the night!!

Best wishes, Helen Bancroft
