

Tresillian Class

You are expected to be reading every evening, either independently or with an adult. You will need to record this in your reading record - either if you have read independently or get your adult to record it if you have read together. Please record the date, the title of book and page number read to. Miss Paine and Mrs Alexander will be checking reading records to ensure they are being recorded in daily.