

Helford Enrichment Grid Spring Term - 2019

Chocolate

(including inspiration from our Literacy, Roald Dahl)

Design your own version of an 'Oompa Loompa' who would help you in your Chocolate factory.	Produce a film or book review on a Roald Dahl masterpiece.	Design some lickable wallpaper for your bedroom. What would it have on it?	Write out the alphabet and try to find a chocolate or sweet to go with each letter. For example A - Aero, B - Bounty etc.		Create a recipe for a new chocolate invention. Which ingredients would you use?
Make a list of countries where cocoa beans are grown.		Create a word search using vocabulary linked to Roald Dahl or chocolate.	Create your own 'Golden Ticket'.		What is your favourite Roald Dahl book and why?
If you could be a Roald Dahl character, who would you be and why?	Make some chocolate cakes or cookies!	Create a song or poem inspired by chocolate.		Make a list of chocolate bars and their prices. Can you create a word problem using some of this information?	Write a description of your favourite chocolate.
	Create a Chocolate inspired poem.	Melt chocolate and paint this liquid onto leaves. Then when they cool, carefully peel off the leaves to leave solid chocolate leaves.	Create a survey finding your family's favourite chocolate. Can you produce a tally chart? Bar chart?		Make a collage of a cocoa bean.
Create a Chocolate wrapper collage.	Roald Dahl uses lots of similes to describe the BFG, for example, 'an arm as thick as a tree trunk'. Can you make up some more?		Imagine that there was one more golden ticket available and a new child found it. What are they like? How do they feel about visiting the chocolate factory?	Create a chocolate inspired game.	Can you create a fact file on the author Roald Dahl?

From the above table, the children are encouraged to complete a minimum of 8 by Easter. Enrichment work should be handed in on a Monday.
